

Introduction to the Company

The rebirth of NorthCountry Homes heralds the re-emergence of a business dedicated to getting young working-class people and first-time buyers into home ownership and wealth creation, by providing low-cost homes for sale throughout England.

Introduction to the Role

We're looking for an organised and motivated Assistant Quantity Surveyor to join our commercial team. This role offers an excellent opportunity to gain hands-on experience, grow your career, and play a key part in delivering high-quality, affordable homes across England.

Expectations

- Support management with reporting and commercial matters.
- Assist with subcontractor, supplier and partner relationships.
- Help prepare orders, process invoices and track payments.
- Attend site meetings to monitor progress and materials.
- Keep records and contract documentation up to date.

What We're Looking For

- Qualification or basic knowledge in Quantity Surveying.
- Understanding of construction methods and costs.
- Strong organisational and communication skills.
- Good problem-solving ability with a practical approach.
- A proactive, team-focused attitude with a willingness to learn.
- Passionate about building a career in the construction industry.

This role is ideal for someone keen to develop their surveying career in a supportive environment. You'll gain exposure to a wide range of projects, build valuable practical experience, and contribute to the success of our commercial team.

ASSISTANT QUANTITY SURVEYOR

The Package

- Competitive Salary
- Discretionary Bonus Scheme
- Healthcare Membership
- Immediate auto pension enrolment
- Private Medical Insurance
- Holiday entitlement of 26 days plus bank holidays

Does this sound like the role you have been looking for?

Send your CV and covering letter to: info@northcountryhomes.co.uk